NSW Police Legacy. Caring for widows and children.

February 2008

From the Chairperson

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

The beginning of 2008 has brought about a few changes to the office of NSW Police Legacy. We are saying a reluctant goodbye to Jordie, Nicole and Fiona, but a very warm welcome to Alison, who is taking on the Company Secretary position and Lisa who is the new Network Coordinator.

Jordie is taking on three and a half months around South America including Brazil, Ecuador, Paraguay, Peru, Bolivia and Argentina starting with Carnival in Rio de Janeiro and finishing with the hustle and bustle of New York on the way home. It is a well deserved experience that I'm sure she will appreciate every minute of.

Nicole leaves two weeks after Jordie to begin a 3 month volunteer placement in the hills of Cuzco, Peru. Their paths will cross when Jordie passes through on her way to complete Machu Picchu in March. Nicole will finish off her trip with a tour through Bolivia and Argentina then on to New York before heading back to Sydney in mid June.

I'm sure you will join me in wishing both Jordie and Nicole exciting and safe travels, and we look forward to hearing the many tales on their return. Also, I am sure you are all eager to personally welcome Alison and Lisa at one of our many functions throughout the year, but until then do not hesitate to give them a call and introduce yourself.

WE REMEMBER THEM.

Sue Waites
Chairperson

SECRETARY'S JOTTINGS

Legatees can expect correspondence in the coming months regarding the restructure of the Legator Network. Please complete the questionnaire so as we are able to provide a better Network for the future. Our aim is to set the Legator Network up so that it runs efficiently and that every Legatee gets assistance when needed.

Rays Outdoors were kind enough to give NSW Police Legacy a discount when purchasing much needed equipment for our January Camp this year. They extended this generosity to include discounts for any Legatees shopping in their stores. Should you go into a Rays Outdoors store you can advise them that you are a member of Police Legacy to receive a 10% discount store wide and a 16.5% discount on workwear. Their website is:

NSW Police Legacy Christmas Luncheon 2007

The Police Legacy Christmas Luncheon was once again held at Acer Arena, Sydney Olympic Park. 330 Widows, Widowers and Special Guests attended the biggest function on the Police Legacy calendar. The room was beautifully decorated in a red, gold and black theme topped off with a delicious 3 course meal.

Police Legacy's new Vice Patron, Commissioner Andrew Scipione APM addressed those in attendance. Mr Scipione expressed his pleasure in being able to have a formal involvement in the Legacy family.

As part of the formal proceedings, gifts were presented to Brian Friend, Paul Farqueson, Karen Harris, Kel Durney and Chris Ashton for their ongoing contribution to NSW Police Legacy year after year.

Three of the six Legatees lucky enough to go on the Overseas Hiking Tour for 2007, Blake Mathew, Eliza Collett and Dominique Erichsen were in attendance, and were presented with plaques as a memento of their Trek to Thailand. Chairperson, Sue Waites interviewed the participants with some interesting and funny stories to be told.

A moving powerpoint of the previous two years of the Kokoda Expedition was shown showing some fantastic photos of all twelve participants from 2006 and 2007. In addition to this, Mariel Greenwood-Graham put on an amazing performance singing 'Orange Coloured Sky' and 'I Have Nothing'. Mariel had the audience captivated with her beautiful voice.

This year there was two recipients of the Roll of Honour. The recipient's for the prestigious award, which recognises an individual's outstanding contribution to NSW Police Legacy over an extended period of time, was presented to Phil Hickman, former NSW Police Legacy Chairman and Tom Tsia, NSW Police Legacy Auditor who has volunteered his time since Legacy's inception.

A fantastic day was had by all and as always it was fantastic to all be together to celebrate what NSW Police Legacy is all about.

Kids Christmas Party - Clifton Gardens

The annual Kids Christmas Party was once again held at the beautiful Mosman Gardens Reserve on Saturday 15th December. The jumping castle, face painter, cricket, piñata's and swimming amused the children until a barbecue lunch was served. After lunch Santa arrived in a highway patrol car and gave an amusing presentation to all the well behaved kiddies. Approximately 65 Legatees attended the event with most Legatees bringing their own picnic blankets and chairs to relax in the sunshine and enjoy each others company whilst celebrating the festive season as a Police Family.
